Keeping You Informed

We miss being with the Northumberland Hills Storm and their families! Please visit our Youtube link

In week two of distance learning, learning materials are being posted and shared.

Relationships are key to student achievement and well-being in school. With distance learning, it is more important than ever that we continue to nurture these relationships through open and ongoing communication.

Parents and caregivers can reach out to school staff as you usually would. You can always leave a voicemail message on our school phone (905-344-7361) and your call will be returned.

Reach out if you need us and we will continue to stay in contact with you.

♥ Ms. Kostuch

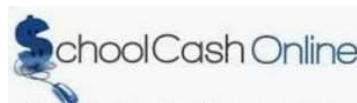

OPEN Wi-Fi

Members of the public may access the Internet at no charge from outside school buildings. In using this resource, please follow public health directives and maintain physical distancing. To connect to our public Wi-Fi, select: KPRDSB-OpenWifi

SCHOOL CASH REFUNDS

We are issuing refunds to families who pre-purchased items for April and May. Check your School Cash account and leave a message for us at the school if you have any questions or concerns.

SCHOOL COUNCIL – Meetings are cancelled for the remainder of the year

DISTANCE LEARNING TIP

Create a consistent learning routine and expectations. When children are involved in the setting of schedules and guidelines, they are more likely to see them as important and follow them. There may well be differences in opinion about what a day or week should look like. This is normal. Resolving disagreements is an important, lifelong skill for students to develop.

A NOTE FROM THE HUB

If you miss the Blue Spruce books, there is good news, authors are reading their picture books online! Go to: <https://forestofreading.com/blue-spruce/> . Click on a book title and the video pops up. Plus, for each book, there are fun learning activities like word searches and drawing. These are “if you like” things to do!
